Lady in the Window Captures Aloha Magic, Hope, Healing, Karmic Romance & the Infinite Mother-Daughter Bond

Kate Grace, who seemingly has it all, faces the trials and tribulations we all face at one time or another in our lives – the death of a loved one, the breakup of a romantic relationship, and the desire to find one's authentic place in the world. After a series of concurrent events turn her life upside down, Kate's new friend, top TV talk show host, producer, and philanthropist, Olivia Larkin, a 42-year-old black woman who has successfully navigated the glass ceiling creating a dynamic life, comes to Kate's rescue; offering Kate respite as her guest in a seaside garden cottage rental in the ancient, magical paradise that is Hanalei, Kauai. As Kate welcomes the "aloha spirit" into her healing process, the angelic and otherworldly occurrences that begin to transpire are too poignant for Kate to ignore. Spencer weaves a universal work that serves to inspire hope, healing and celebrate the infinite bond between mother and daughter.
